

Today's Rahu Kaal: Avoid Inauspicious Timing for Important Work

What is Rahu Kaal in Vedic Astrology?

Rahu Kaal (Rahu Kalam) is an inauspicious period in Hindu astrology, ruled by Rahu (North Lunar Node). Any important work started during Rahu Kaal is believed to face delays, obstacles, or failures due to the malefic influence of Rahu.

Rahu Kaal occurs every day for approximately 90 minutes, with its timing changing daily based on sunrise and sunset. Avoiding Rahu Kaal for new ventures, financial transactions, and travel is strongly recommended.
